

A Symbol for Our Veterans

By Karla Vasquez

It's not a moment to manifest
It's not a moment to whimper yea or nay
Let your hand touch your heart
And remember those who once remarked

Goodbye mother, goodbye father
Goodbye lady, goodbye brother
This duty calls me, my youth, it's stronger!
If we don't do it, don't dare wonder

Huzzah For Liberty!
Our very own flag, red, white, and blue
Flies high for us the people
Not for leaders, a person's history, or those behind the stand

Don't let differing opinions
Let this tradition be silenced
An opportunity that unites all mankind
For the ideals of what makes a democracy

One small moment, one small symbol
For one huge purpose for all!
Respect to our veterans!
